

You are invited to attend a breakfast reception honoring

Former Congressman Steve Pearce

(NM-02)

Former Congressman Pearce was first elected to the House after having won one of the nation's toughest congressional battles in 2002. Steve was named as a top target for defeat by the "Defenders of Wildlife" for his tireless battle to increase domestic energy production. Now he's fighting to regain his seat in Congress, and he needs our support. Steve was a leader on the House Natural Resources Committee where he was the Ranking Member on the Subcommittee on Energy and Mineral Resources. Before being elected to Congress, Steve served in the New Mexico House of Representatives, and owned and operated his own oilfield services firm. If elected, Steve will retain his seniority and return as a fourth term Congressman.
