

Media Advisory

Contact Information:

Jon Bargas
(303) 623-0987
jbargas@ipams.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 21, 2008

Matt Silverman of Robert L. Bayless, Producer, LLC to discuss 'Even in Boulder: The Boulder Oil Field, 1901 – Today'

DENVER – Matt Silverman of Robert L. Bayless, Producer, LLC will give a presentation entitled "Even in Boulder: The Boulder Oil Field, 1901 - Today" that discusses the compatibility of energy development with open spaces, recreational facilities and residential neighborhoods as well as the lingering economic benefits but fleeting surface impacts of oil & gas production.

Who: Matt Silverman, Exploration Manager with Robert L. Bayless, Producer LLC

What: Matt Silverman will discuss the compatibility of energy development with open spaces, recreational facilities and residential neighborhoods as well as the lingering economic benefits but fleeting surface impacts of oil & gas production. Matt will offer proof of the fact that vital natural resources are where we are allowed to find them, not where it may be politically correct or geographically expedient. His presentation highlights the proud history of the industry and its role in the growth of the Intermountain West.

When: Monday, March 24, 2008
12:00 -1:00pm

Where: John D. Hershner Room
Wells Fargo Building,
1700 Lincoln St.
Denver, CO

About IPAMS

IPAMS, founded in 1974, is a non-profit trade association representing more than 400 independent oil and natural gas producers, service and supply companies, banking and financial institutions and industry consultants committed to environmentally responsible energy development in the Intermountain West. More information on IPAMS and its members is available at www.ipams.org.

###