IPAMS to host industry expert Gary Stewart in a presentation on “Crude Oil: The New Reality”

(DENVER) – The Independent Petroleum Association of Mountain States (IPAMS) will host Gary Stewart, CEO, Melange International, LLC as he presents “Crude Oil: The New Reality.”

How do reserves compare between OPEC and Non-OPEC members and industrialized versus developing nations? Does OPEC still control the world price? These and many other questions will be discussed during this timely and an in-depth analysis of world oil supplies on a regional basis.

Prior to starting Melange International, LLC, Stewart worked as an exploration geologist for Exxon USA and served as a member of President Clinton’s Energy Advisory Team for eight years. He has over 24 years of experience working in the natural gas and oil industry, and has been involved in over 30 new field discoveries in the Rocky Mountain region in addition to several projects in the former Soviet Union and West Africa.

The event will be held tomorrow, March 4, 2009 at the Denver Athletic Club on the Denver Petroleum Club Level (1325 Glenarm Place) in downtown Denver beginning at 11:30 a.m. Mr. Stewart will be on hand after the presentation to answer questions from the media.

All media related attendees and inquires should be directed to Jon Haubert, Communications Specialist, at 303.623.0987 or jhaubert@ipams.org.
